

ST. LOUIS DAY TRIP

Windows of the Past

April 29, 2027

$127.00 Per Person

Celebrate National Postcard Week with a fascinating journey through the history, architecture, and memories of St. Louis! This unique day trip begins with an exclusive viewing of a remarkable private collection of historic postcards, offering a captivating glimpse into the city's vibrant past. Through these colorful snapshots of another era, you'll discover how St. Louis once looked and learn the stories behind some of its most treasured landmarks. Then, step out of the postcards and into history as we travel throughout the city to visit many of the iconic locations featured in the collection. Along the way, you'll compare past and present, uncovering what has changed, what has endured, and how St. Louis has evolved through the decades. This engaging exploration brings history to life in a way that is both nostalgic and enlightening. The day also includes a delicious luncheon at the legendary John D. McGurk's Irish Pub and Garden in historic Soulard. Since opening in 1978 as a one-room pub house, McGurk's has become one of St. Louis' most beloved Irish establishments, renowned for its warm hospitality, authentic atmosphere, and charming garden setting. Join us for a memorable day of discovery as we explore the city through these remarkable "windows into the past."
