Italy: Where every bite tells a story and every sunset steals your breath.

Tuesday September 8th - Day 1

Today's the day your Italian adventure begins! Board your overnight flight from the U.S. to Rome and let the anticipation build. You're about to explore seaside villages, ancient ruins, and vineyard-covered hills with a group of curious, kind travelers. Take a deep breath and get ready—Italy awaits.

Wednesday September 9th - Day 2

Buongiorno, Italia! Upon arrival in Rome, you'll board your private coach and head south to Naples, a city bursting with life, flavor, and soul. After checking into your beautiful accommodations at the Gold Tower Lifestyle Hotel, unwind and refresh before our Welcome Dinner at Mama Eat—a vibrant restaurant known for its inclusive menu and unbeatable Neapolitan classics. It's the perfect setting to toast to new friends and the days ahead. (D)

Thursday Sept 10th - Day 3

This morning we travel along the stunning Amalfi Coast, where cliffs plunge into the sapphire sea and lemon trees line the roads. First stop: the hilltop haven of Ravello. Explore lush gardens, historic villas, and panoramic terraces. Enjoy lunch at a local gem perched high above the coastline. In the afternoon, descend to the colorful cliffside village of Positano, where pastel homes tumble toward the beach. You'll have free time to explore boutiques, enjoy a spritz by the water, or dip your feet into the Mediterranean. Return to Naples this evening with a heart full of beauty. (B, L)

Friday Sept 11th - Day 4

How will you spend your day? Choose to explore Naples at your own pace—perhaps visit a local art museum, sample espresso in the historic district, or relax with a book in the piazza. Or join us for an optional excursion to the Isle of Capri, where sea caves and stunning cliffs await. Glide across the water by boat, stroll the upscale shops of Anacapri, or take the chairlift to Monte Solaro for panoramic views. However you spend the day, Italy's magic surrounds you. (B)

Saturday September 12th - Day 5

Today we time travel to Pompeii, the once-thriving Roman city frozen in time by Mount Vesuvius. With a professional guide, explore the haunting ruins—stone streets, ancient villas, and frescoes that speak to lives lived long ago. Later, we return to Naples and roll up our sleeves for a hands-on pizza making class. Learn from a local pizzaiolo how to make authentic Neapolitan pizza—then eat your delicious creation, of course! A fun, flavorful day that blends history and heart. (B)

Sunday September 13th - Day 6

After breakfast, we travel north to Italy's iconic capital—Rome. Step back in time as we visit the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, and other unforgettable landmarks with a local expert who brings history to life. Enjoy lunch in the heart of the city before checking into your stylish hotel, Dharma Luxury Suites. This evening is yours—find a trattoria near the Trevi Fountain, wander cobbled lanes, or simply people-watch in a bustling piazza. (B, L)

Monday September 14th - Day 7

This morning, choose your own pace. Relax and explore Rome or join our optional guided Vatican tour, where you'll see the awe-inspiring Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's Basilica, and masterpieces of Renaissance art. Later, savor the city with free time to shop or sightsee, then regroup this evening for a magical rooftop dinner overlooking Rome's skyline. Watch the sun dip below the domes and spires while enjoying a gourmet Italian meal. (B, D)

Tuesday September 15th - Day 8

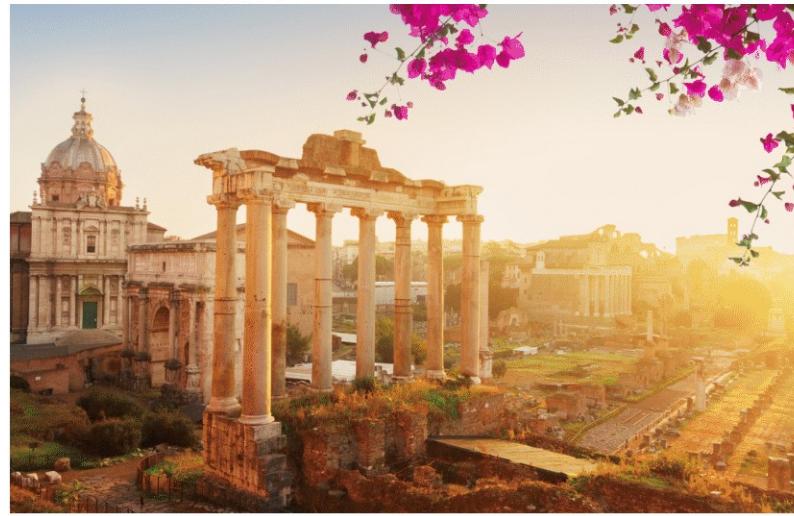

Trade city streets for cypress trees as we journey into the golden hills of Tuscany. Along the way, we'll stop at a boutique winery for a tasting of local wines and olive oils. Then, continue to our countryside retreat: Borgo Casabianca, a stunning villa nestled in the hills of Asciano. Tonight, a chef-curated dinner on property welcomes you to the tranquil rhythms of Tuscany. Relax with a glass of red wine, gaze at the stars, and feel time slow down. (B, D)

Wednesday September 16th - Day 9

This morning we visit the medieval town of Montepulciano, famous for its wine, views, and charming piazzas. Wander the narrow streets, shop for artisan goods, or sip espresso in a hilltop café. Then, head to the acclaimed Icaro Winery for a tour and al fresco lunch paired with Vino Nobile. With its minimalist architecture and bold wines, this experience is a highlight of any Tuscan escape. Return to the resort for a peaceful evening. (B, L)

Thursday September 17th - Day 10

A beautiful final day begins with a hands-on Tuscan cooking class, where you'll learn to prepare regional specialties using fresh, local ingredients. After enjoying the fruits of your labor for lunch, we head to Castello di Verrazzano—a renowned winery in Chianti Classico territory. Tour the historic wine cellars, enjoy a tasting, and toast to a trip well spent. (B, L)

Friday September 18th - Day 11

Today we journey to Siena, one of Tuscany's most beloved towns. Join a local guide for a walking tour through the medieval streets, see the famous Piazza del Campo, and learn about the town's unique Palio horse race tradition. Enjoy time for lunch and exploration before heading back to the resort. Tonight is free to enjoy the peaceful countryside—perhaps with a nightcap under the stars. Back at the resort, we gather for a farewell dinner filled with laughter, reflection, and wine-fueled toasts to new friends and unforgettable memories. (B, D)

Saturday September 19th - Day 12

This morning we make our way back to Rome for afternoon departures. As you board your flight home, your suitcase may be heavier—but your heart is undoubtedly fuller. This was more than a vacation—it was an experience that will stay with you forever. (B)

10 Things to know before you go!

1. This tour is designed for travelers who want more than a checklist.

We're not rushing from city to city—we're immersing, tasting, wandering, and connecting. Every detail is curated to help you feel Italy, not just see it.

2. You'll be walking—but not racing.

We explore ancient ruins, hilltop villages, cobblestone streets, and scenic vineyards. While the pace is comfortable, a moderate amount of walking is part of the experience. Closed-toed walking shoes are a must.

3. It's a small group, high-touch experience.

Expect personal attention, space to breathe, and a community atmosphere. We keep our groups small so you're not lost in the crowd—and always feel supported.

4. There's structure and freedom.

We've built a balanced itinerary with guided tours, included meals, and planned excursions—but also generous free time to nap, shop, grab a cocktail, or wander at your own pace.

5. You don't need to speak Italian—but we'll help you try. Your guides will handle the logistics, but we love helping guests learn a few phrases to feel even more connected. A "Grazie!" goes a long way.

6. The hotels are stunning—and thoughtfully chosen.

From a boutique property in Naples to a tranquil Tuscan villa, each stay is four-star quality and reflects the local charm of its region. Rest is part of the experience.

7. Come hungry.

This tour features real Italian cuisine—from a pizza-making class in Naples to a hands-on cooking day in Chianti. Bring stretchy pants (or better yet, wear linen).

8. Optional excursions = personalization.

Want to take a boat to Capri or visit the Vatican? We've included optional experiences so you can tailor your journey to your interests, without overloading the group.

9. You'll want travel insurance.

Because this trip is international, we strongly recommend travel insurance. Life happens—and we want you covered in case of delays, cancellations, or medical issues.

10. This tour is meant to change you.

Italy has a way of getting into your soul. Whether it's the sunset in Positano, a quiet morning in Tuscany, or a glass of wine shared with new friends, this isn't just a trip. It's a turning point.
