You'll love this tour if...the brilliant colors of fall make your heart skip a beat, if cobblestone streets and seaside villages feel like a storybook, and if you crave history that comes alive before your eyes. From lobster fishing in Maine to the witch trials of Salem, from Newport's gilded mansions to the bright lights of Times Square, this journey blends breathtaking scenery, rich history, and unforgettable moments with friends.

Day 1 – Welcome to Vermont

Arrive in Burlington, Vermont, where the charm of New England greets you at every turn. After checking into your hotel, gather with your fellow travelers for a Welcome Dinner, the perfect start to a journey filled with autumn color, cozy towns, and unforgettable scenery. (D)

Day 2 – Burlington to Portland

Breathe in the crisp autumn air as you tour Burlington, rich in Revolutionary War history and nestled along scenic Lake Champlain. Then, indulge your sweet tooth with a stop at the Ben & Jerry's Factory—where the ice cream is just as unforgettable as the fall foliage on the drive east. This afternoon, travel through winding roads ablaze with color on your way to Portland, Maine, where your downtown hotel puts you steps from shops, seafood, and ocean views. Tonight, enjoy dinner on your own, perhaps fresh lobster by the harbor. (B)

Day 3 – Portland & Lobster Fishing

After breakfast, set out along the breathtaking Kancamagus Highway, famed for its mountain vistas, winding rivers, and brilliant foliage in season. Arrive in Portland, Maine, where the highlight of the day awaits—an unforgettable lobster fishing cruise. Step aboard and learn the trade from local fishermen as you watch the catch hauled fresh from the sea, gaining a true appreciation for one of Maine's most iconic traditions. Back on shore, enjoy time to explore Portland's lively waterfront, filled with quaint shops, seafood eateries, and classic New England charm. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers for a delicious group dinner in town, the perfect end to a day full of scenery, stories, and sea air. (B, D)

Day 4 – Kennebunk, Salem & Boston

Travel the scenic coast to the charming villages of Kennebunk and Kennebunkport, known for sandy beaches, quaint shops, and rich maritime history. Then it's on to Salem, Massachusetts, where you'll enjoy lunch with the group before delving into the city's storied past with a tour and visit to the Witch Trials Museum. This evening, arrive in Boston, with your hotel perfectly located for exploring the city's dining and nightlife. (B, L)

Day 5 – Historic Boston

Wake up in Boston, a city steeped in American history. Today's guided tour takes you to landmarks like the Old South Meeting House, Boston Public Gardens, Old North Church, and Beacon Hill, while bringing the story of Paul Revere to life. You'll also visit the USS Constitution Museum, rounding out a day rich with exploration and discovery. (B)

Day 6 – Boston Tea Party & Newport Mansions

Step back to 1773 Boston at the Boston Tea Party Museum, where you'll relive the night that changed history with Samuel Adams as your guide. Then journey south to Newport, Rhode Island, famed for its opulent Gilded Age mansions. Tour two of these grand estates—such as The Elms and Marble House—where lavish décor and fascinating family stories bring the past to life. This evening, enjoy a delightful group dinner. (B, D)

Day 7 – New York City Highlights

Today is all about New York City! Visit the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island, then pay your respects at the moving 9/11 Memorial and Museum. With your hotel just steps from Times Square, you'll be in the heart of it all. Tonight, share a memorable farewell dinner at a top NYC restaurant before enjoying free time to soak in the city's bright lights. (B, D)

Day 8 – Farewell to New York

Enjoy a leisurely morning in the Theater District, with time to catch a few final sights or simply soak in the city's energy. This afternoon, transfer to the airport for your flight home—taking with you memories of one of the most unforgettable journeys you've ever experienced. (B)
